EXPERIENCE

Tank Design / Developer

Cambridge, MA

January 2013 - Present

- + As a member of the development team, work both individually and with designers and other developers to build out a variety of projects, ranging from full front-end overhauls, to CMS builds using WordPress or Drupal, HTML/CSS/Javascript buildkits, Flash advertisement banners, and more.
- + Utilize current and bleeding edge front-end technology to produce a seamless user experience that is both innovative and useful for a wide range of clients, including FedEx, Genzyme, Citizens Bank, and more.
- + Work with clients to build working HTML prototypes for usability testing of new applications using, in some cases, Adobe's PhoneGap framework for mobile development.

Second Nature / Digital and Creative Developer

Boston, MA

September 2012 - April 2013

- + Working with the Second Nature team, designed and developed a completely redesigned and re-imagined company website using Drupal 7.
- + Responsible for all front and back-end development, including customizing Drupal modules, engineering the user experience, and utilizing HTML5 and CSS to make a modern, exceptionally functional site.

The Boston Globe / Web Developer

Boston, MA

January 2012 - June 2012

- + Debug and perform maintenance tasks on two of the largest regional websites in the country (Boston.com and BostonGlobe.com).
- + Assisted in the migration process for Boston.com from the Bonzai CMS to the Methode CMS by adapting code for the Methode language.
- + Working both individually and with other developers and designers, add functionalities and elements to the aforementioned sites, including a live scoreboard and boxscores.
